Dear Faculty Club Members,

Here we are, almost Ground Hog Day and spring is on its way along with a renewed hope for the future!

We hosted a very successful Zoom lecture with Dustin Griffin ’65, retired professor and former Williams trustee. At least 86 people attended this lecture on the Presidency of Phinney Baxter. The recording is available at: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=yrr_5O3HKE. We send many thanks to Dustin and Patrick Gray, our go-to-guy in IT who hosted this talk for us!

Good news finally! The Faculty Club will be open 3 days a week starting in February: Monday, Wednesday and Thursday. Yeah! The February menu is on Page 2 of this newsletter.

Now for future events. Friendly Friday is expected to return on February 4th, and be sure to save the date for the March Friendly Friday on March 4th.

Cupid’s Culinary Feast is scheduled for February 12th! This awesome menu is offered to Club members at a generous discount.

Important dates to remember:
• Reservations accepted until February 8th @ 3pm
• Cancellations without full charges: February 6th

To make reservations you can either email facultyclub@williams.edu or call 413.597.3089. The limit for reservations is 60, so please reserve soon.

Let’s be honest here—this may all change. We hope that things go well, but this is a very challenging environment. It is a good sign that we will have hot buffet lunches 3 days a week, so fingers crossed!

As a long-term employee, I believe the College is doing its best to look out for the well-being of students, faculty, staff and community. We will respect their wishes and adjust our plans accordingly. This said, let’s proceed with planned programming. Stay Warm!

Until we are together again!

Alison
