Convivial Conversation and Cuisine for Williams Faculty, Staff and Community Members

Board Corner

Dear Faculty Club Members,

After a really icy February, spring is in the air! Yeah! March 4th is our Saint Patrick's Day themed Friendly Friday. Please take a look at the menu below. Coach Dick Farley has graciously agreed to be on hand to sign his book, Why I Never Left Williams College. A limited number of books will be available for purchase, so bring your checkbook.

On Saturday, February 12th we were able to host Cupid's Culinary Feast at the club. We had @45 attendees who enjoyed the delicious food and the warm company of their friends. This was the first dining event in the Faculty House other than weekly lunches since the beginning of Covid in 2020. It was a joy to see so many familiar faces! Attendees and staff were all very excited to be there in person, and you could actually feel the energy of such a happy crowd of people.

Chef James Godfrey and his staff did a great job preparing the yummy and visually beautiful food. The main dish of Northeast-raised prime beef tenderloin, local butter and saffron poached lobster tail, was just lovely, and it cut like butter. Thanks to Chef Godfrey and all of the staff who made the meal a great success! I look forward to having this event again in 2023 when more of our friends are able to join in the fun.

Board members are busy trying to plan events for the spring, so please keep an eye out for announcements.

Happy Spring!
