Board Corner

Dear Faculty Club Members,

The holiday season is soon upon us, as are some entertaining and educational events at the Faculty Club!

October's family friendly cookout was a great success! Attendees took the opportunity to continue Mountain Day fun with their family and colleagues, enjoy awesome BBQ and play cornhole on the Faculty House lawn. No doubt there will be more cornhole at upcoming Faculty Club events! We had 70 adult attendees and another 20 children who had a blast. Keep an eye out for more events like this in the future.

We are excited to announce a special addition to our usual Friendly Friday programming. In November and December, the Music Department will present a short concert by student chamber music ensembles at 5:30 pm in the Faculty House Living Room. November's musical selections are listed on this page, and December's will be announced next month. We hope you will enjoy these musical appetizers!

On Wednesday, December 14th at 5:00 pm, we welcome journalist James Bettner Brooke to discuss the war in Ukraine. Among his many accomplishments, Brooke is the former editor in chief of Ukraine Business News and Moscow Bureau Chief for Bloomberg.

If you would like to plan ahead, on Friday, January 13th, 5:00 pm. Eiko Maruko Siniawer, Provost & Class of 1955 Memorial Professor of History will speak at the Faculty Club about her book Waste: Consuming Postwar Japan.

Both lectures are free and open to the public, and refreshments will be served.

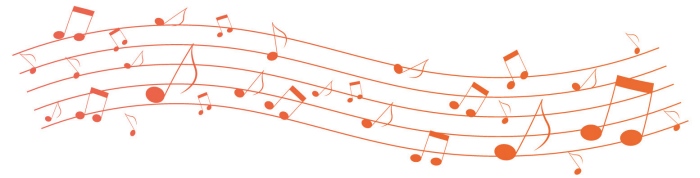

The Board has more events in the works so expect more communications about these in future newsletters, emails, and on our website.

We hope to see you soon!
