Convivial Conversation and Cuisine for Williams Faculty, Staff and Community Members

Board Corner

Dear Faculty Club Members,

As we near the end of 2022, it is time to reflect on all we did together over the past year and look forward to more opportunities to share good times ahead.

The November Friendly Friday was attended by 60 people who enjoyed great food and a delightful concert by Williams student chamber music ensembles. We thank them so much for lending their considerable talent! You can view the performances here! We look forward to welcoming them back for our December 2nd Friendly Friday, so make plans with your friends and colleagues to attend and usher in the holiday season together!

The Club will be manning a table at the December 3rd Holiday Walk Penny Social, so please stop by and say hi. Bring some friends along who may like to join the Faculty Club. All are welcome.

On December 14th, Journalist James Bettner Brooke will deliver a talk titled Ukraine's Winter War Changes the World Order. This event is free and open to the public and refreshments will be served. We look forward to seeing you there!

Kudos to Dining Services staff for the awesome and creative lunch buffets they have been serving lately. I had the Pork Banh Mi recently and it was such a treat. All of their offerings have been excellent.

The Board looks forward to a new year ahead, and we would love your input about the kind of programming you would like us to host. We have included a survey with both the emailed and print versions of this newsletter. Please fill it out and let us know how we are doing.

Warm wishes and a Happy New Year,

Alison
