DECEMBER 2023

Where Williams College Faculty, Staff, Alumni & Community Come Together

Board Corner

Dear Faculty Club Members,

The holiday season is coming up fast! Are you ready? I know I'm not, and never am, but somehow, we manage to get through it and even enjoy it. Spending time with family and friends is precious and important. Make memories while you can, whenever you can, you won't regret it!

November's Friendly Friday was very well attended, with most of the 54 guests being faculty and staff. Bring colleagues and friends to the next Friendly Friday on December 1st start celebrating the holidays together.

We had a delightful performance by students from the Chamber Music Department. Around 40 students, faculty, staff and alums filled the Faculty House living room to enjoy this lovely event, and get a chance to participate in a rich intergenerational experience. Keep your eyes open for more collaborations like this soon. Special thanks to their advisors Ah-Ling Neu and Jackie DeVoe for bringing these talented students to the Faculty House.

More programming is on the horizon. In the meantime, enjoy the delicious buffet lunches that Dining staff provide 5 days a week. I challenge you to get a more delicious and nutritious lunch anywhere. Soup to nuts for only $13 for members! You can't even eat at McDonalds or Burger King for less. And the Faculty House food is much better for you. I feel healthier just entering the building.

The Club Board would like to welcome Brandon Hurst from Facilities to the Faculty Club Board. Brandon participated in the Chip and Sip events that we sponsored at Waubeeka Golf Course last summer, and he really enjoys having lunch at the Faculty House. Come and meet Brandon at a Friendly Friday. Welcome Brandon!

The Faculty Club Board would like to wish you all the happiest and healthiest of the holidays and a Happy New Year! I hope to see you soon!
